MARIAN YEAR

GOOD READING for YOUNG ADULTS

AUGUST 1954

BOSTON PUBLIC LIBRARY

IN PRAISE OF MARY

The golden book of Catholic poetry. Alfred Noyes, ed.
This anthology of poems by Catholics and in the Catholic spirit selected, by a distinguished poet, begins with "A Carol to Our Lady". 821.08 N952g

The Mary book. Francis J. Sheed
Eloquent tributes expressed in modern prose and in ageless poetry. 232 S541 2m

The world's great Madonnas. Cynthia P. Maus
Reflecting the backgrounds of the peoples on every continent are their "pictures, poetry, music and stories centering on the life of the Madonna and her Son". 232 M459w

VISITATIONS OF OUR LADY

Bernadette of Lourdes: shepherdess, sister, and saint. Frances P. W. Keyes
An intimate picture of the "sublime shepherdess" who had a vision of Our Lady of Lourdes. 92 S719ke

The grace of Guadalupe. Frances P. W. Keyes
On a hilltop called Tepeyac, a lonely, humble Aztec Indian receives his holy mission. 232 K44

Our Lady of Fatima. William T. Walsh
The six appearances of the Virgin to three shepherd children in Portugal are recounted. 231 W228o

Pacific hopscotch. Sister Maria Del Rey
A travelogue of the Maryknoll sisters who serve "Ang Mahal na Virhen" (the dear Virgin) throughout the Pacific. 266 M332p

Visitations of Our Lady. Richard F. Norton
A pilgrimage in print to the various places throughout the world favored by visits from Our Blessed Lady. 232 N887

The voyage to Lourdes. Alexis Carrel
Early in the brilliant scientist's career, Dr. Carrel's outlook toward science and religion was deeply affected by watching a dying girl brought back to health at Lourdes. 231 C314v

IN HER SERVICE

They are people. Sister Mariella, ed.
Revealing, modern short stories of nuns, monks and priests, almost all of them written by those outside the cloister. M334t

This is the seminary. Rawley J. Myers
A young priest explains informally what the priesthood expects of the seminarian and what the candidate should expect in privations, privileges, and preparations for his vocation. 207 M996t

Tumbleweed. Edward J. Doherty
Baroness Catherine de Hueck, a Russian aristocrat, escapes from the Revolutionists to America and to a life of unique service in interracial cooperation. 92 D323d

Kateri of the Mohawks. Marie C. Buehrle
The Indian maid who fled the Mohawk marriage rite and offered herself to Christianity. 970.2 T261b

Parish priest. LeRoy E. McWilliams
The joy and anxieties brought to the counsel of a warm-hearted priest in a crowded, city community. 92 M177a

The Queen's daughters. Cyril C. Martindale
Women saints, "daughters of God's house who followed in the train of their Queen", are here presented in quick, vivid sketches. 920 M384q

Shepherd's tartan. Sister Mary Jean Dorcy
This warm and winning account of convent life includes the stirring essay "Blueprint" on the "age of Mary". 271 D694s

Sketch me, Berta Hummel! Sister Gonsalva Wiegand
The life story of Sister Maria Innocentia who expressed her piety and love through her paintings and sculptures. 92 H925w

The springs of silence. Madeline De Frees
At sixteen, Madeline De Frees entered the novitiate of a teaching order where in her assigned tasks, in her studies, and in her fuller concept of prayer, she found fulfillment. 92 D316as

The story of the Romance. William E. Rively
To serve his parish in the Caroline-Marshall Island Mission, this priest bought and sailed a forty-five foot brigantine from San Francisco to Truk.

Prepared by the
Readers Advisor for Young Adults

These books may be obtained through the Young Adult Section of the Open Shelf Department in the Central Library and through the Branch Libraries and Bookmobiles of the Boston Public Library.